CONFERENCE HAS BUSY DAY

Anniversary of Conference Board of Missions Is Celebrated.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., March 29.—Minute business occupied the greater part of the session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today. The characters of all of the addresses were passed in this way, the conference answered several of the minute questions.
Rev. B. W. Bond, presiding elder of the Rockingham District, conducted the devotional service, with which the conference session began.

The question which Bishop Murrain called was the question, "Who are admitted on trial?" The answer to this question could not be given, as the conference had not yet met.
